

CITY DIGEST'Digital-first wave inspiring the youth'

Members of the Entrepreneurship Development Institute of India on Monday observed the institute's 44th foundation day. Kishor Kharat, former MD and CEO of Indian Bank and IDBI Bank, was the chief guest at the ceremony. He termed entrepreneurs as a strong foundation of India's economy, and added that even failures propelled the story of entrepreneurship forward. Dr Sunil Shukla, director general of EDII, said that the tech and digital-first wave are inspiring the youth to adopt entrepreneurship as a career.
