

EDII organises its 25th convocation

The Entrepreneurship Development Institute of India (EDII) hosted its 25th convocation at its Ahmedabad campus, with Vinal Kumar Saxena, Lieutenant Governor of Ladakh, as the chief guest. A total of 98 students and scholars received diplomas and graduation certificates across academic programmes. Several graduating students also secured grant sanctions under the student start-up innovation policy. Business ideas emerging from the batch reflected a strong focus on innovation and sustainability.
