

17 nations participate in EDI's training programme

Ahmedabad: Seventeen countries participated in the international training programme at Entrepreneurship Development Institute of India (EDI) called "Use of English language in business communication" and 'Governance and management of non-government organizations' sponsored by the ministry of external affairs. Jayanti Ravi, commissioner of higher education of the state was the chief guest at the six-week long programme which concluded on Thursday. TNN