

EDI gets Dewang Mehta Award

Ahmedabad: The Entrepreneurship Development Institute of India was conferred the National B-School Leadership Award at the 19th Dewang Mehta Business School Award presentation ceremony held on November 26. The award, which has been instituted in memory of late Dewang Mehta, was given to EDI as recognition towards the Institute's efforts in leadership, development, innovation and industry interface. EDI director Dinesh Awasthi said, "The award endorses the criticality of promoting entrepreneurship, fostering innovations and honing leadership skills which are the mandate and the vision of the Institute." Awasthi added that the award is a testimony to the importance of entrepreneurship education in the fast changing global industrial environ and that such a recognition will help in boosting EDI's efforts in realizing its mission on national and international arenas. Supported by Shaila Mehta, Director, Onward Foundation, the Dewang Mehta awards each year recognizes talent and leadership amongst business schools across the country. The award is named after late Dewang Mehta who was the former chief of National Association of Software and Service Companies (NASSCOM). TNN